

For Immediate Release: January 20, 2025

Fashionable Hot Spots in 2025 - London, Paris, New York, Milan...Lansdowne, Ontario!

Presented by the Lansdowne Association for Revitalization (LAFR), Tea & Style, Lansdowne's Spring Fashion Show is a fundraiser for Leeds and Grenville Interval House. Tea & Style will take place on Sunday March 30th at the Lansdowne Community Building and will feature a fashion show, with elegant tea and sweets. Local radio personality, Trinette Atkinson, of Kingston's Move 98.3 will be your emcee.

An exclusive event with a limited number of tickets available, the show will feature male and female models of all sizes and shapes in fashions provided by local businesses. With fine china, tablecloths and a VIP seating section, Tea & Style will showcase fashion through an elegant walkthrough show with door prizes provided by local businesses.

Like your vintage porcelain teacup and side plate? Take them home for a small additional donation to Leeds and Grenville Interval House! Wear your most fashionable ensemble and celebrate local businesses while supporting a fantastic and essential community organization.

Tickets are just $20 per person, and will be available through select outlets and via email, as well as at the door. Visit the LAFR FaceBook page (<https://www.facebook.com/LansdowneAssociationForRevitalization>) and follow for updates on fashions and the latest news about Tea & Style 2025.

The Lansdowne Association for Revitalization is a volunteer run, non-profit with a mandate to foster community pride and promote sustainable economic and cultural development through planning that builds on our values and unique assets.
